World Fuel Services Yacht Solutions

a global solution to your Superyacht fuel requirements.

Not all tax and duty regimes are the same.

Our expert knowledge means we know the most cost-effective places to refuel your Superyacht, tailored to your precise needs.

What if your engineer has concerns about the fuel you've taken on?

Even if you're in the middle of the ocean, our technical team is on hand 24/7 to help. We can take your engineer through the steps to get to the root of any problem.

Do you know the most cost-effective places to fuel along your route?

Before you set off, or even while you are underway, our experts suggest the best places to take on fuel. Our long-standing supplier relationships mean you get guaranteed premium quality fuel at a competitive price—we never cut corners on quality.

There's no such thing as 'normal' working hours.

We understand that owners, guests, even the weather can change the best-planned itinerary. With our network of yacht specialists around the globe, there's always a team to help you get the fuel you need – even on evenings and weekends.

Beyond fuel.

Over the years, we have built a wealth of knowledge and expertise to help Superyacht Owners, Captains, and Chief Engineers.

- Voyage planning and consultancy
- Tailored payment terms
- Physical supply in many locations
- Local supply vetting for quality assurance
- Dedicated Technical Team
- Duty free pricing and tax regulation expertise
- Legal services
